

Renaissance Art and Theology

Lutheran Homeschool Intensive

Friday/
Saturday
February 6-7
at Camp Io-Dis-E-Ca in Solon, IA

Overnight rooms are optional and limited.

Schedule

Friday February 6th

4:30pm Arrival and registration

5:30pm Welcome and prayer for supper

6:30pm Free time for socializing

Saturday February 7th

8:00am Breakfast

8:45am Arrival and registration for Saturday only participants

9:00am Matins

9:30 Madison Post: Forgotten Masterpieces of the Sistine Chapel

10:30am Middle School and High School Students: Exploring Oils and Still Life (Fireside room)

10:30am Elementary School Students: The Possibility of Monochrome (Dining hall)

12pm Lunch

1:00 Dr. Stephenson: "Renaissance," "Humanism," and the State of the Church in the 15th Century

2:15pm Closing prayer and farewell

Cost: $75 overnight/family or $30/family for just Saturday

Register at <https://campiodiseca.org/homeschool/>

Madison Post is the wife of Tanner, mother to 4 beautiful and funny children and an enthusiast of High Renaissance era art. She paints for church renovation projects carried out by Reile Decorating of Cresco, Iowa.

Rev. Dr. John Stephenson was a professor of historical theology at Concordia Lutheran Theological Seminary in St. Catharines, Ontario from 1988-2022. He now serves as chaplain at the Lutheran Home in Vinton, Iowa and keeps himself busy with theological research, lecturing, and publishing.